✓ THE MOVIE .

✓ by Hal Roach ✓

"In the Movies" is the title of this Hal Roach comedy featuring "Snub" Pollard in the offering which is an amusing burlesque on the motion picture theatre in the small town and the small town audience. "Snub" appears as a Hick who has written the scenario of the film that his local theatre has booked. With Marie, he goes to see the film and has all sorts of difficulty in getting into the theatre and finding a seat. After his troubles are over, "Country Store Night" is celebrated, with Pollard drawing for the prizes. It is soon proven that the showman is crooked, and a free-for-all-fight in the theatre is the result.
